TONOPAH WOMAN'S CLUB WEEKLY BUSINESS SESSION

The regular business meeting of the Tonopah Woman's club was held yesterday afternoon in the kindergarten room of the new schoolhouse. Interesting reports were read upon the work of the juvenile welfare section, the civic section and the musical section. The travel section has deferred their meetings until the first of the year, when the members will take up the study of Greece, its history, architecture and art, with one special lecture upon the development of Greek philosophy.

A rumor has been circulated that is designed to injure the standing of the Woman's club in the estimation of the public, and the members of the club wish to state definitely that the club has no intention of taking up any matter, public or private, that does not come under the head of juvenile welfare, civic progress or the study of music and history.

BUTLER THEATER.

Another interesting program of pictures will be shown at the Butler this evening: "The Hallyhoo's Story," a Vitaphone drama; a Kalem split-reel showing "Pete's Insurance Policy," a comedy, and "The Sea Scouts of America," scenic, and a two-reel western drama, "Broncho Billy Gets Square." Two carriages, brothers-in-arms, are wanted by the law. Jealousy leads one of them to give up the other. Broncho Billy is the one sent to jail. He serves his 15-year term and comes out to get square. He finds his false friend, a prosperous gambler now, in time to prevent a bigamous marriage. Tomorrow, "In the Shadow," a Vitaphone; "Bill's Career as a Butler," an Edison comedy, and a two-reel serial, "The Bridge of Shadows." Next Friday, "The Prisoner of Zenda," in four reels.—Adv.

There is one way to beat the high price of eggs—don't use 'em. The remedy is a drastic, but a sure one. But then when the use is resumed it would be just like the eggs to go up again.
